Observance of the Law

46. All competitors must observe the law of the land relating to road travel and in particular all forms of traffic signals and direction indicators must be strictly obeyed. Competitors must stop at the major roads indicated by all halt signs and place one foot on the ground, and shall receive no assistance. Except for safe overtaking, competitors must ride on the left-hand side of the road.

Competitors who ride dangerously will be liable to strict disciplinary action.

Officials must not seek to regulate other traffic.

Regulations

Paced Riding and Company Riding

47. Competitors must ride entirely alone and unassisted. They must not ride in company with, nor take shelter from, any other rider or from any vehicle on the road. If one competitor overtakes another he must pass as widely as possible, and no shelter must be given or received. The onus of avoiding riding in company shall be upon the rider overtaken. Competitors when dismounted must wheel or carry their machines without assistance whilst covering any portion of the course.

Use of Motor Vehicles

48. A competitor shall not be accompanied, followed (except by the direction of the promoter) or in any way encouraged by a helper with a motorised vehicle whilst the vehicle is in motion. In team time trials, observers officially appointed by the British Cycling Federation, with permission of the National Committee, may be allowed to follow teams by means of motorised vehicles in events nominated as International Selection Events.

Regulations

Efficient Brake(s)

51. Competitors must have an efficient brake operating on the front wheel. In the case of machines equipped with free wheels two brakes shall be fitted. Fixed wheels must have a locking device properly fitted. Tandem bicycles and tandem tricycles must be equipped with two efficient brakes whether they have fixed wheels or not.
