We're sticking to our label!

Well printed labels are informative, eye-catching and sales inducing; they provide a practical and economical answer to many marketing and promotional problems. Reel-fed self-adhesive labels can be used with automated labelling devices or simply dispensed by hand. Our considerable expertise in this field is at your disposal to help solve any problem where self-adhesive labels might provide the answer.

We produce, for example, coded pharmaceutical labels for automatic application - labels for frozen foodstuffs - special offers - price changes - label badges for charities and many other applications too numerous to mention - and what about a self-adhesive correction slip for a change of address or mistake in a leaflet?

As we said, we're sticking to our label - may we stick yours in our happy customers album?
