GENERAL COMMENTS.

All the awards will be presented at the Annual Luncheon to be held yet again at what has proved to be a very satisfactory venue:-

Top Rank Suite, Odeon, Ashford, Kent. - Sunday February 12th 1984

Mid-day start, with two Bars to choose from; and I can assure all those who have neglected their education by not attending, that the festivities are quite sincere as well as being hilarious, and I would hasten to state that ALL our visitors receive a most warm welcome. Our first event will be "on the circuit" in May. Now back to the event.

Congratulations to all the prizewinners, and quite frankly, all those who braved the elements and competed, as it really was a rotten day, with steady heavy drizzle. My grateful thanks also to all the many helpers, without which this promoting lark could quickly become nightmare. Still we only have one good day every ten years, so there are nine more to go yet.

Special thanks to:- Gerry Larsen and the West Kent lads at Dartford Heath Roundabout; Timekeepers Arthur Wilson & Harry Kingsmill; Ron Ash & Brenda, with "Young" Bill Underhill; Geoff.Bray and "Old Ironlegs" Kuri, Medway Velo, at the Bean part; starting was Dick Jacobs and Pete Jones Kent R.C.; Les Andrews recording; John Jenkins, Result Board with Bernard Grant telephones, West Kent R.C. and of course to the lady who regularly looks after the Tea Bar while getting soaked, Pat Mealing, Catford C.C. I have received numerous messages, both in person, by letter and telephone for non-starting, and would like to acknowledge all of these. Finally; The KENT GROUP would like to thank you all, and congratulate "Young" John Wright, Becontree, who sent me notification of improvement during the preceeding week, at 72 years of age. Good Luck mate. We would like to inform you that the GROUP MEETS, FIRST SUNDAY IN EVERY MONTH FOR ELEVENSES, at the HALFWAY HOUSE, HARRIETSHAM, STARTING IN NOVEMBER. We look forward to your support in MAY 1984.
