

Wind kept riders down to five

ONLY five riders competed in Sunday's Hastings & St Leonards Cycling Club '10' at Broad Oak, others being deterred by the strong wind sweeping the course.

Club champion Peter Baker emerged a clear winner in 26min 06sec.

Russell Walsh was second with 26min 46sec.

Veterans Bruce Mitchell and Tony Jevons were both satisfied with their rides in the windy conditions, with Bruce beating Tony by seven seconds in 29min 06sec.

Miles Child recorded 31min 46sec.

John Willis, riding the 75 mile Streatham Velo road race at Ellens Green in Surrey, finished strongly in a chasing group of five riders to take 15th place.
