oooooooooooooooooooooooooooo

My thanks to the timekeepers, marshalls, tea ladies and all other helpers without whom there would be a funny old event. In particular my thanks to the 'Old Dragon' who provides the answering service when I am out, the sympathetic word when things do not go quite right and the discreet cough at the language when the slow moving finger hits the wrong key. The apologies from the non starters are accepted better luck nex time.

NOTE it was a fine day, so see you all again next year, I hope.
