Apologies for Absence:

Apologies were received from Dave Morris and Sid Powell..

Minutes:

The Minutes of the previous meeting having been circulated were then taken as read and adopted.

Matters Arising:

There were no matters arising.

Financial Report:

The profit of £15 from the 1998 Dinner and the £10 cheque we were holding have been banked and the balance is now £595.54p.

The Chairman had received a donation of £3 specifically for petty cash for which a receipt has been issued.

Petty cash now holds £4.94 and a book of stamps.

The bank and receipt books were checked and approved.

Dinner Dance 1999:

The Chairman reported that Peter Stone of the West Kent R.C. and current President of the Kent C.A. has agreed to be our Guest of Honour and speaker at this function and also that Peter Holland will provide us with information for the citation to Gwyneth when she receives the Ladies Silver Salver, keeping the award secret from her. Wilf Baker is proposing The Visitors again.

It was agreed that the Chairman should visit Joan White at The Yelton to obtain the price for the meal and although we are anticipating an increase this time, if this is no more than £2.00 he can go ahead with getting the tickets printed in time for the Kent & Sussex Fellowship Meet in early October.

The possibility of having a mike for the speakers to use and the fact that the beer was off downstairs last time will also be discussed at the same time.

The provisional booking with Joyce Oliver has now been confirmed.

Any Other Business:

No items came up under this heading.
