Dinner/Dance 1999:

The Chairman had been to see Joan White at the Yelton Hotel with the result that once again we are being charged the same price as before, i.e. £9.50 per head. This is now the fifth year at this price so our tickets remain the same at £10.50. Esther Carpenter will print the menus at no charge to us. Dave Morris has printed the tickets again at no charge to us and some have already been sold at the Kent & Sussex Fellowship Autumn Meet. Again our thanks are due to Dave and Esther.

Regarding a mike for our speakers, Joan White said that the hotel didn't have one of their own but she would find out if we could borrow the one belonging to their resident D.J. She will also arrange for seats to be in the dance area. The downstairs beer situation will be mentioned when the menu is booked. This was agreed as follows:- Soup (not tomato); Roast Turkey, Sprouts, Carrots, Peas, Roast & Creamed Potatoes; Bakewell Tart & Cream; Coffee & Mints. Speakers were agreed as 'The Fellowship' Peter Stone, West Kent R.C. and K.C.A. President. 'The Visitors' Wilf Baker. 'Grace and The Loyal Toast' Sid Powell. 'The Citation to Gwyneth Holland' Esther Carpenter and Toastmaster Ernie Spray.

The main speaker and his wife Gill will receive complimentary tickets as usual.

Raffle prizes to be donated by committee members as usual and if thought required more can be bought. Flowers will be presented to Gill Stone.

The Chairman has again confirmed the booking with Joy Oliver.

It was suggested that Wilf Baker might have a mike we could use. This will be looked into by the Chairman.
