

the carnival at Lewes eclipsed everything.

The twenty-five miles championship of the world in bicycling was won at Brighton on Monday by J. Keon, the 50-mile champion of England. D. Stanton (the 100-mile champion) and C. Thuillet (French champion) also competed.

The High Constable of Lewes gave his inaugural dinner on Wednesday, to which about 120 guests sat down. Among the speakers were