

HASTINGS CLUB NOTES

The mystery run, led by Mr. G. Cotton, last Sunday was fairly well attended.

Leaving via London-road and Silverhill, rough going was encountered through Silverhill Park, Old Roar and Grange-road, and the riders then proceeded past Hurst Court, down Chown's Hill towards Three Oaks, then on to Westfield and through lanes to Sedlescombe, bearing left to Pay Gate Cottage, and then up Marley-lane to Battle. The main road was followed via Kitchenham-lane to Penshurst and the lunch destination, Ashburnham.

Here the Eastbourne Club were met and, after various games, the Hastings party made for Woods Corner and Ruslake Green, the main road being followed to Herstmonceux, then left to Wartling and Pevensey, and over the old main road to Barnhorn and Little Common, continuing up Belle Hill to Bexhill and home to tea.

To-morrow's run is to Matfield. Assemble 9 a.m. at the Royal Oak, leaving 9.15 sharp. All members are asked to attend in view of a pleasant surprise.
