LOCAL CLUB NOTES

The club tour of the West Country was carried out without incident, the mileage being over 450. Winchester, Salisbury and Wells Cathedrals were visited. At Wells the party heard the famous clock striking the hour. Clifton suspension bridge was another fine sight in the tour. The last day's run was from Amesbury on Salisbury Plain

To-morrow (Sunday) riders meet at Christ Church, Ore. at 7 o'clock for a run to Reculver and district; tea at Ham Street at 5 p.m.
