

Cycling

HASTINGS CLUB NOTES

The run last Sunday was again well supported. Leaving via the Front, the route lay through Sidley and Herstmonceux to Horsebridge for a brief halt, afterwards forward to East Hoathly and Uckfield, through the Forest road to Nutley and Wych Cross. From there, Forest Row and East Grinstead were made in good time, and the riders went on to Godstone for lunch, via Felbridge and Blindley Heath. After travelling via Edenbridge to Ashhurst and Langton and the outskirts of Tunbridge Wells, Lamberhurst was reached by way of Bayham Abbey, and tea was taken at Swiftaden.

An easy run home via Hurst Green completed an enjoyable 100 miles.

For this week-end the club have two sections, one riding through the night for Rushden and Northampton, and the Sunday section leaving the Royal Oak for Chichester at 5 a.m. Tea at Brighton at 5 p.m.

Wednesday's social run to Rye and Northiam starts at 7 p.m. sharp.