

LOCAL CLUB NOTES

The run to Rushden and district was carried out without incident. Leaving after lunch on Saturday, the riders reached their destination via London, Bedford and Milton Ernest, covering a distance of 133 miles, in ten hours, which included all stops for refreshment.

Sunday's run to Bognor and Chichester was also carried out satisfactorily. After breakfast at Brighton, the coast road was followed via Worthing and Littlehampton to Bognor. Chichester was reached in time to visit the cathedral and afterwards riders went forward to Arundel for lunch. The route then lay over undulating country to Crossbush, Broadwater and the Old Shoreham road to Brighton. After tea at Lewes, they had an easy run home via Ringmer, Horsebridge and Ninfield. Hastings was reached at 8 p.m. and the mileage was over 150.

Wednesday's social run is to Barnhorn and Hooe, leaving at 7 p.m.

To-morrow (Sunday) riders meet at Christ Church, Ore, at 7 a.m. for a tour of Kent; tea at Stone 5 p.m.
