

Cycling

HASTINGS CLUB NOTES

The run last Sunday, which was again fairly well attended, led via Icklesham and Rye over Romney Marsh to Ham Street and Ashford and over undulating country to Kemps Corner, Chilham and Canterbury for lunch. After a visit to the cathedral and the Dane John recreation grounds, the riders went on via Bridge and Barham Downs to Dover and through Folkestone to the tea destination at Hythe. The homeward route was through Dymchurch and Ivychurch, Brookland and Rye, with a brief halt at Icklesham.

To-morrow (Sunday) hard riders go to Hatfield (meet 4 a.m.), and tourists to Worthing, leaving the Royal Oak at 8 a.m. sharp. Tea at the Dicker team rooms at 5 p.m.