

Mind my bike

THE Mayor, Councillor John Hodgson, took a spin along the sea front at St Leonards on a racing bike before joining the company of more than 100 at the centenary dinner and prizegiving of the Hastings and St Leonards Cycling Club at the Royal Victoria Hotel on Saturday. The club claims to be the oldest in the country with an unbroken existence and members of many other cycling clubs were present
Picture: Tim London.