

Rising cycling star

Eighteen-year-old Peter Baker (above) has leapt to fame in only his first year as a senior member of the Hastings and St Leonards Cycling Club.

His most dramatic feat was the breaking of the club's 11-year-old record for 25 miles by over a minute to become the first Hastings rider to complete the distance in under an hour. His time was 58min 59sec.

Baker was again in good form in the recent Eastbourne Rovers "10s" recording a time of 23min 33sec.
